

In honor of MayDay-the worker's holiday

Free film & discussion

THE WOBBLIES

8 pm/Friday
April 29th

Maitreya Buddhist Center
55 West Broadway

Founded in 1905, The IWW, whose supporters are called "Wobblies," are a remarkable organization. This documentary captures the struggles, spirit, songs & satires of the movement. This 1979 film features interviews with elderly workers who participated in various campaigns which brought industrial unionism to craft-conscious industries. None had lost their fervor, sense of humor or belief in the revolution. Beyond the powerful narratives, the film features archival footage, including cartoons & graphics.

Sponsored by Lane branch-Industrial Workers of the
the World, AFSME 3214 & Eugene-Springfield Solidarity Network

info:iww.org or eugeneiww.org