On June 26, 1975, during a period of high tensions on the Pine Ridge reservation in South Dakota, two FBI agents were killed in a shootout with Oglala Lakota & American Indian Movement activists. Although several men were charged with the killings, only one, Leonard Peltier, was found guilty. This film describes the events surrounding the shootout and suggests that Peltier was unjustly tried and convicted. Leonard's current status and events since the film's release to follow.
