

In November We Remember

Free film & Sing-a-long

Joe Hill

@Cozmic

8th Ave. & Charnelton

7 pm/Mon.

Nov. 19th

In the early 1900's, the legendary Joe Hill emigrates to the U.S. with his brother. Joe gets a few jobs but is struck by all the injustice going on. He becomes active in the IWW, the radical union. Joe Hill's parodies of that era's popular tunes and songs are sung and shared in various labor strikes and battles. He gets connected with a Utah murder in a politically charged trial which results in his state execution. His songs are still sung worldwide.

Sponsored by Lane branch-
Industrial Workers of the World

Free all political prisoners!