

free screening

The Power of Community: How Cuba Survived Peak Oil

Be prepared when your empire collapses!

+film short:Haiti's Tourniquet-Union organizing in Haiti

7pm/Tuesday, March 23rd

@COZMIC PIZZA 8th & Charnelton

When the Soviet Union collapsed in 1990, Cuba's economy went into a tailspin. With oil imports cut by half & food by 80 percent, people were desperate. The film tells of hardships and struggles as well as the community & creativity of the Cubans during this difficult time as they transitioned from a highly mechanized, industrial agricultural system to using organic methods of farming & local, urban gardening.

Sponsored by the Lane branch of the Industrial Workers of the World (IWW), Latin America Solidarity Committee (LASC) & Eugene Rising Tide