

Free film & Sing-a-long

Sponsored by Lane branch-Industrial Workers of the World

Bound for Glory

Celebrate the 100th B-day of Woody Guthrie with this biographical film @Cozmic
8th Ave. & Charnelton
7:30 pm/Tues
August 21st

Adapted from Woody Guthrie's autobiography, the film portrays a few pivotal years in the life of the celebrated folk singer and social activist. In the Depression 1930s, Midwesterner Guthrie plays music locally but can't support his family. He joins the migration west from the Dust Bowl to "greener" California pastures via boxcar.